An act relating to school facilities.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 413, as introduced, Alquist. School facilities: Williams v. State of California.

Existing law, the Leroy F. Greene State School Building Lease-Purchase Law of 1976, the Leroy F. Greene State School Building Lease-Purchase Law of 1998, and the State Relocatable Classroom Law of 1979, requires the State Allocation Board to require a school district that receives funds for a school construction or modernization project pursuant to those laws, to make all necessary repairs, renewals, and replacement to ensure that a project is at all times kept in good repair, working order, and condition.

This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to memorialize and implement the settlement agreement in the case of Williams v. State of California, regarding school facilities.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to memorialize
- 2 and to implement the settlement agreement in the case of
